

TIMELESS HOSPITALITY SERVED IN UNMISSABLE LOCATIONS

London has it all – Roman ruins, a Medieval street layout and the opulence of the empire. Through centuries of strife, fire, fabulous wealth, grinding poverty and political upheaval, Londoners have retired to their beloved pubs to swap stories, share the news and laugh away their troubles.

On a Nicholson's Ale Trail you see London hospitality at its best – and just as our founder, William Nicholson, envisaged it. In the polished wood, gleaming brass, decorative tiles, etched glass and wrought ironwork of a Nicholson's pub, you see the true heart of the city.
